Location

Penthouse Montevideo is situated on the Costa del Sol, between the whitewashed, charming village of Benahavis, which has some of the best restaurants on the Costa del Sol, and the buzzing exclusive marina of Puerto Banus. The nearest beach is only 5 minutes away by car. Marbella is 20 minutes away and Gibraltar is just an hour's drive.

Gazules del Sol, where the penthouse is situated, is a luxury development in a Mediterranean style with glorious sea and mountain views and fabulous facilities including pools, Jacuzzi, gym and paddle tennis courts.

The immediate area boasts 12 (will increase to 15 within the next couple of years) of the Costa del Sol's 70 Golf courses, it is therefore the hotspot for golf lovers.

Nearest airports and rental cars

The nearest airport is Malaga airport which can be reached within 50 minutes. You can also choose to fly into Gibraltar airport which is 1 hour away. Car hire is recommended, though not essential.

Recommended car hire companies are www.carjet.co.uk or www.easycars.com.

Local attractions, and things to do

Benahavis (5 minutes drive)

Benahavis is a mountain village 7 km from the coast. Renowned for its restaurants it is above all a picturesque place, where you can find incredible mountain and sea views.

Puerto Banus (10 minutes drive)

Puerto Banus is a marina in Marbella which was built as a luxury marina and shopping complex for the jet-set and the super-rich. It has berths for 915 boats, including those of the King of Saudi Arabia and several of the world's wealthiest individuals. Along the marina lie streets filled with bars, boutiques, restaurants and nightclubs - perfect for wining, dining, partying and people-watching!

Marbella (20 minutes drive)

With 27 kilometres of coastline and 24 different beaches to choose from Marbella has something for everyone. In Marbella you'll find an endless supply of world-class restaurants, luxury hotels, spectacular golf courses, fashionable shops, a lovely marina and a vast number of lively bars and clubs to keep you entertained till sunrise.

Estepona (15 minutes drive)

Estepona is a town located on the coast renowned for its beaches, which stretch along some 21 km of coastline. You can also find a modern sports marina with many tapas bars and restaurants and a white-walled town offering shopping and picturesque squares.

Malaga (45 minutes drive)

Malaga is the capital city of the Costa del Sol. An estimated 6 million tourists flock each year to this wonderful sunny cosmopolitan city to explore the beautiful landscapes, remarkable architecture, great nightlife and fantastic seafood restaurants. The city is well-known for its sandy beaches but also for its rich history, additionally being the birthplace of the famous painter Pablo Picasso. The Picasso museum opened in 2003 and has been highly praised by those who appreciate exceptional culture.

Gibraltar (1 hr drive)

Gibraltar is an overseas territory of the UK and still the site of a large naval base. It lies between Spain and Africa and is easily accessed through Spain by car, although you need to bring your passport. There is a short ferry that takes you straight into Morocco where a wealth of shopping and culture awaits you. From the rock of Gibraltar you can go by cable car to the top and from here you can enjoy spectacular views, explore caves, tunnels, a Medieval castle and meet the notorious Barbary Apes.

Golf

The area surrounding Montevideo is a haven for golf lovers! There are many international standard courses within easy reach such as La Quinta Golf, Los Arqueros Golf, Atalaya Golf, La Zagaleta, Los Naranjos, Las Brisas, Monte Mayor, Coto la Serena, El Paraiso, Aloha Golf, Guadalmina Club, Flamings, La Dama de Noche, La Duqueasa and many more.
